ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION METHODS

A variety of informal and formal methods may be used for assessing and evaluating your learning, including but not limited to:

- Assignments
- Labs
- Tests
- Projects
- Presentations
- Peer Assessments
- Self-Assessments

Evaluation Scheme:

Assignments: 5 @ 10% each...50%
In-class Exercises : 4 @ 5%..20%
Project 30%
Total 100%

All coursework must be completed and submitted on or before the specified due date. Detailed instructions for each assignment will be provided with the assignment specifications. Grading will be completed, and results will be posted in Brightspace within five working days.

Late Submissions

Assessments and evaluations are to be handed in on or before the specified due date. Late submissions will be accepted with a 5-point penalty for each day late, up to one week. Later than one week receives a grade of zero. Should you be unable to complete an evaluation, speak with your faculty prior to the due date about your options.

Supplemental Evaluations

Students may be eligible to write supplemental evaluations however, not all courses are eligible for a course supplemental evaluation. Approval to exempt a course from eligibility for supplemental evaluation must be granted by the school Dean and the Director of Enrolment and Registrar. For more information speak with your faculty or Academic Chair.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Inclusion and Integrity of the Learning Environment
We strive to ensure that equity, inclusion and social justice is the reality for all students, faculty and staff. We commit to provide a safe and respectful working and learning environment where differences are valued, expected and honored. Within this environment, students are required to demonstrate the values of respect, academic integrity and honesty.

To support these goals, we have the following policies:
• Respectful Community
• Student Community Standards
• Employee Code of Conduct
• Sexual Violence
• Academic Integrity
• Academic Accommodations
• Educational Equity

Appealing a Final Grade
NSCC is committed to a fair, transparent and timely approach to a student's right to challenge academic decisions and non-academic decisions that affect academic progress and standing.

If you feel your final grade is unreasonable, speak with your faculty or Academic Chair about your concerns. If the issue is not resolved, you may pursue a formal appeal. Speak with your Student Services Advisor for more information on the Student Appeals Policy, procedures, and your eligibility.

Copyright

Copyright compliance is a legal responsibility. All students, staff and faculty at NSCC are required to abide by the NSCC Use of Copyright Materials Policy, Fair Dealing Guidelines and the Copyright Act of Canada when copying materials. This includes art, music, videos, sound recordings, images, printed works (book, journals, newspapers, etc.) and materials on the Internet. Check with your Campus Library if you have questions or visit our Copyright Guide.

Preparing for Learning

Your success in this course stems largely from your level of engagement and willingness to learn. Preparation, attendance, and participation are key factors in learning. If you feel overwhelmed, lost, or disengaged, speak with your faculty, Academic Chair, or Student Services Advisor about how we can help.

Student Supports

Visit the Student Supports Hub to access accessibility, advising, career, financial aid, library, learning and wellness supports. For support with Brightspace visit Service Desk and select Technology Services and then View Services. Click Create a Request (Select "Brightspace", then "Brightspace Student Support").
